HOW CAN WE HELP YOU?

SUBMIT A MANUSCRIPT

1. If you want to submit a manuscript, you need to click the Register button.
2. Select Presenter and click the Participate here button in the symposium that you wanted.
3. You will be directed to symposium page that informs the completed topics, committee, author guidelines, and paper submission steps.
4. Read all the information carefully.
5. Follow the author guidelines and all the paper submission steps.

I CANNOT ACCESS MY EDAS ACCOUNT

An EDAS account is required for all of the authors to participate in the Computer and Information Technology symposium; Electronics, Power, Communication, Control, and Instrumentation symposium; 3rd Geoscience and Environmental Management symposium; Mechanical and Industrial Engineering symposium; or Remote Sensing and Geomatics symposium.

- If you create a new EDAS account, you need to send an email to help@edas.info and fill the activation form in the symposium page. This activation needs a day or more because EDAS team will activate it manually.
- If you forgot your password, you could reset it from EDAS page by clicking the reset icon or the Reset password button below.
